Description

A superb Regency piece dating from around 1810. A real country house piece having 3 drawers and standing on turned legs terminating with the original brass casters. The figuring in the top is beautiful. The photos do not do it justice. Because I take the photos in natural daylight it does appear slightly lighter than it is. It is a rich 'conker' colour. It is a good height to sit at being just over 30". It is in lovely condition.
