Description

In good condition for age a country bureau bookcase of quality with real charm & colour. Great patina, clearly a past treasured antique with careful maintenance & repairs showing its real history. Bureau base on bracket feet has three long graduated oak lined drawers, the slope opening to reveal a fully fitted interior as shown (currently we have found five secret storage spaces). The pair of gothic shaped panelled doors wire reeded side columns open to show the adjustable shelved interior. A genuine country piece only recently purchased from a local farm where it had been for a number of generations.
