Description

Having just returned from our silversmith's workshop, where it has been fully restored to its former glory, this magnificent novelty bullet shaped cocktail shaker was in a sad state before we worked on it. I am 99% sure it would have been made in Italy as I have had a similar one marked "Italy" in the past. Point the arrow to the desired cocktail and the windows reveal the ingredients required. A highly collectable example in excellent condition dating to the late Art Deco era, c.1940. 4 1/4" including the pouring spout x 3 3/4" x 9" tall. Silver plated and the interior sleeve lavishing gilded. Item: 44169 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From the UK
