Description

Antique J W Benson full hunter pocket watch. The watch has a good quality 17-jewel Swiss stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement has screw-set jewels in gold settings and a Breguet hairspring for enhanced precision. The movement has been identified as by Revue Thommen. The movement is signed with the name of the original retailer of the watch, J W Benson, London. J W Benson originated in 1847, founded by James William Benson and Samuel Suckley Benson. They were regarded as one of Victorian London's most prestigious retail jewellers and they also manufactured their own watch movements. The company flourished and proudly boasted an elite client base made up of both British and European royalty and a selection of well heeled industrialists and business figures including the King of Siam, the King of Portugal, the King of Denmark, the Emperor of Japan, the Tsar of Russia and the King of Greece. J W Benson also supplied watches to Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales. As with many watch manufacturers, J W Benson embraced the newly introduced wristwatch during the first World War. Up until this point, the company was still manufacturing its own ...
