Description

Early C19th English George IV period Empire design mahogany console table. Raised on bold architectural Tuscan-style columns onto a platform base with a plinth surround , the frieze fitted with a single bow-fronted drawer echoing the profile and shape of the upright columns, with gilt-brass classical anthemion or 'honeysuckle' mounts . The back panel having a cross-banded border . In excellent original condition with a rich colour and patina. The figured mahogany top having minor historic watermarks and stains . A powerfully designed Empire-style table of practical proportions with a strong presence. H 42" W 36" D 18" England c.1825
