Description

This is an antique lath back rocking chair. An English, oak and beech elbow seat, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900. Superb Victorian craftsmanship to this traditionally appealing rocker. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select oak and beech shows fine grain interest throughout. Attractive dark caramel hues beam beneath a quality wax polish finish. Arched and bowed top rail with shaped ends. Gently curved laths create an eye-catching element. Pairs of turned balusters supporting each serpentine arm. Gently formed saddle seat slab adds to the comfort. Raised upon pleasingly turned, stout legs. United by a double h-stretcher with tapered spindles. The long, arched rocking feet provide a relaxing motion. This is a superb antique lath back rocking chair, with appealing country or farmhouse charm. Ideal for the lounge or porch. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
