Description

A lightly gilded solid silver pendant formed of a pavé-set oval top, a central flower and a tiny dangling drop, all studded with vivid turquoise cabochons and dating from the 19th century. We believe the pendant is a historic conversion, possibly from an earring. It would make a perfect "something blue" for a wedding! Turquoise, in the language of Victorian sentimental jewellery, always represents the forget-me-not flower symbolising true love and loyalty. A romantic symbol used as a constant and powerful reminder of a love lost or perhaps of a sweetheart sent off to fight in the Crimean war. In very good antique condition; there is a blemish on the reverse of the top section. Size: Approximately 4 x 1.2cm. Weight: 3.0g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING! Apologies but we cannot ship to Germany, any orders from Germany will be cancelled and refunded. Please note antique boxes pictured are not included unless specified, your item will come in a new box.
