Description

fine quality Georgian mahogany linen press circa 1800. The linen press has wonderful figured mahogany panelled doors with brass door shut with four original slide out linen trays, below this there are two small and two full width drawers with brass oval plate handles, standing on splay feet. The Linen press is in great condition with a working lock and key for the cupboard doors, all the trays and drawers slide nice and smooth as they should. It is a great colour with no unsightly scratches and has a wonderful patina. The top trays can be easily removed and a hanging rail can be fitted to provide hanging should this be required. The linen press comes in two main sections for transport plus the lift off cornice. It is completely woodworm free. We can arrange delivery through out the UK and worldwide please enquire for our competitive prices
