Description

Victorian rosewood Sutherland table This Victorian rosewood Sutherland table was made circa 1870. Rosewood is a wonderful timber and the cabinetmaker used this to make this Sutherland table an eyecatcher. It is oval shaped once the leaves are up and supported by the turned rosewood leg supports. Having double turned end columns and a pole stretcher support to join them. Sutherland tables make great second dining tables and so convenient as they can fold down and stand at a wall. You can also use these with just one flap up. They can also be used as a main dining table in a flat or apartment where space is a premium. 118cms wide open 46 1/2ins 97cms deep 38ins 70cms high 27 1/2ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote. We use a professional Removal company to transport our precious items and do not entrust them to usual parcel services. Therefore, delivery may be 7 -10 days, but it is worth the wait of course. On occasions customers have been disappointed to miss an item as they e-mailed their enquiry instead of phoning, I would recommend that if you wish to get the piece, please ...
