Description

A fantastic original early 19th century Comb Back Windsor chair in solid elm. This was made in England, it dates from the 1820's period. It is of super quality with a beautiful design, very elegant yet sturdy. The turned legs have a turned stretcher for added support, the spindle back is angled so this is comfortable to sit in. The elm has acquired a beautiful patina, this has various signs of surface wear but is overall in very good sturdy condition.
