Description

An elegant George III period inlaid mahogany chest of drawers by Gillows of Lancaster. Of gentle bow fronted form with a series of 4 long graduated drawers, fitted with bold solid brass handles. Very well constructed in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers. The top cross banded and further embellished with a charming inlaid floral border. The drawer fronts decorated with floral inlaid detailing in boxwood and satinwood. With inlaid boxwood stringing throughout. All standing on lovely out-swept bracket feet. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops to a very high standard. Now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Bearing the makers stamp to the top drawer and also a retail label for Druce and Co, of London. Dimensions: Width 115cms Depth 61cms Height 85cms The firm of Gillow's of Lancaster can be traced back to the luxury furniture and furnishings firm founded by Robert Gillow (1704-72) in 1730. Robert Gillow served an apprenticeship as a joiner. During the 1730s he began to exploit the lucrative West Indies trade exporting mahogany furniture and importing rum and sugar. Following his death in 1772, the business...
