Description

A magnificent Art Deco walnut cheval swing mirror dating from circa 1920s-1930s. A tall and slender design with classic Art Deco "cloud" shaped base, the frameless mirror plate has wavy cut glass edges. The mirror sits on fittings which make it adjustable for use and detachable for transport. A really stylish piece that would grace any bedroom with good colour and figuring to the walnut veneers. Construction/Wood: Walnut veneers
Condition Report: Solid and sturdy. Good colour and patina. Some slight foxing to mirror plate near the edges (see photos) commensurate with age. A few small old worm holes to the back board of the mirror. Dimensions:
Width at Feet: 45cm Depth at Feet: 41cm Height to top of Mirror: 158cm
