Description

A pair of late 19th century Sheraton Revival mahogany bedside tables, each with a three quarter gallery top with boxwood stringing and wavy sides over a hinged cupboard door with a brass knob and an oval flame panel with boxwood stringing and mitred quarters, pierced handles to each side and with strung edges on square supports, English circa 1890. Condition: excellent, both pieces are in very good condition, with great colour and patina, one has some marks to the surface but overall they are a lovely pair of bedside tables.
