Description

Antique carved oak throne chair This impressive Flemish well carved throne chair was made in the 19th century. It has an important cresting above the back panel with a carved heraldic crest. In the back is a deep carved panel depicting a scene of men of horseback and others on foot. The leather padded armrests with the handgrips of stylised lion heads. The seat has a decorated seat panel and an arched carving to the front dated 1718 and another heraldic shield with a lion supporting the shield at each side. In the 19thc it was common for makers to carve a date that was a lot earlier than the item. 61cms wide 24ins 69cms deep (footprint) 27ins 117cms high 46ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible. Delivery UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote. We use a professional Removal company to transport our precious items and do not entrust them to usual parcel services. Therefore, delivery may be 7 -10 days, but it is worth the wait of course. On occasions customers have been disappointed to miss an item as they e-mailed their enquiry instead of phoning, I would recommend that if you wish to get the piece, please call rather than e...
