Description

Rare pair 18th century English delft cornucopia shaped wall pockets with lovely hand painted decoration in blue. A true pair facing each other. Both are in very fine condition with just a few minor edge chips as would be expected and one has a short hair crack at front (hardly visible). A similar wall pocket is illustrated in English Delftware by Garner and is attributed to the Liverpool factory. Size; 7" high, 5" wide, 3.5" deep. Delivery cost in mainland U./K. FREE
