Description

An outstanding silver and glass butter dish from the last year of King William IV's reign. This superb piece has a frosted panel cut glass body with star cut base and twin locating 'lugs' for the lid. There is the original matching frosted glass under-plate, also with a cut star. The superior quality lid is engraved to match the cutting on the glass and has a beautifully modelled and fully cast figure of a cow. The figure is mounted on a disc, which is engraved with grass and flower details to represent a meadow. This wonderful example also has the distinction of being by one of the great names in 19th Century silver, the Barnard Family. A rare and usable item of silver and glass tableware. Postage & Packing :- £20.00 UK £35.00 Europe £45.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits to the silver and no cracks or chips to the glass. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- London 1836. Maker :- Barnard Family. Height (to top of cow finial) :- 13 cms. Height (to top of lid) :- 16 cms. Diameter :- 16.5 cms. (underplate).
