Description

An early 19th century antique Welsh oak pot board dresser. The upper section of the antique Welsh oak dresser is an open rack back consisting of three shelves, and numerous hanging hooks. To the dresser base is an arrangement of three fitted drawers, each with wooden knobs, and an under tier shelf or pot board. The pot board dresser is raised on turned feet with turned column supports to the front. Separates into two pieces for ease of transport and movement. Item Ref; M-4488 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 208cm / Width – 164cm / Depth – 49cm / Surface Height - 79cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, splits and fading to the surface top (pictured), further scratches and stains to the front, shelves and pot board (pictured). The antique Welsh oak pot board dresser remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. Separates into two pieces for ease of transport and movement. Overall, a good example of a 19th century antique dresser. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us...
