Description

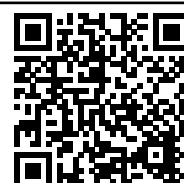

An absolutely glorious Victorian sapphire and diamond ring. Set with three sapphires of the most electric blue, with two white and bright old mine cut diamonds and eight very small diamond spacers between each of the five main gems. The stones nestle within a beautifully carved gallery, leading to a double vented shoulders and a slim, D-shaped shank. A top class example of a Victorian classic. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30310212). Cut - Oval cut sapphire and old mine cut diamonds (with small eight-cut and rose cut diamond spacers). Colour - F to H. Clarity - The main two diamonds are VS2 to SI2 respectively. Both are clean to the naked eye. The sapphires are loupe clean. Carat - A total approximate sapphire weight of 0.80 carat. The two main diamond total approximately 0.45 carat, with a further approximate 0.02 carat in the diamond spacers. Circa - 1890. Size - N 1/2 (UK) or 6.75 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can go up or down. Measurements - From the edge of one outer sapphire to the other is 17mm. The ring is 5.5mm at the widest point and sits 4mm from the finger. Metal - 18k yellow gold. Fully hallmarked. Video - To ...
