Description

Victorian mahogany Queen dressing table This incredible Victorian mahogany Queen dressing table was made circa 1870. In my 45 years of dealing, I cannot recall seeing another of this design. It would have been made for a Victorian mansion and a wealthy family who could afford the quality of this. The swing full length mirror at the centre with the beautifully carved and pierced supports. To each side of the mirror are a pair of serpentine ends with a trinket drawer on the top and a serpentine drawer to each side of the kneehole. It has a pair of carved and waisted columns at the front and a padded footrest joining the two stands. Imagine using this superb Victorian mahogany Queen dressing table to dress at and use before going out on a special occasion.
