Description

An extremely rare Art Deco clock set with a pair of lamps, topped with a spelter statue of Art Deco lady holding a bird, signed at the back of the spelter "Salvado". The clock case and matching pair of lamps/garnitures are made of white and brown onyx, while the statue is cast in cold painted spelter. The clock features a sleek, geometric design with clean lines and a minimalist look. The pair of lamps are designed to complement the clock with their matching shapes. All in good, working condition, some chips/old repairs to the onyx, all consistent with age and use. Both lamps have recently been rewired. Absolutely beautiful and functional Clock a wonderful addition to any room, and a perfect example of the Art Deco aesthetic's.
