Description

A wonderful early 20th century antique oak gateleg table. The antique oak gateleg table has a rectangular shaped top when closed, with a drop leaf to either side. The drop leaves are supported by two gate legs and form a large oval shaped table top when extended. The antique oak gateleg table is raised on eight barley twist legs with straight stretcher supports. Lovely grain and colour throughout. Item Ref; M-4490 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 70cm / Width – 77cm / Depth – 37cm / Extended - 105.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the surface top (pictured), further marks and scratches to the base. The antique oak gateleg table remains structurally solid and sound, with the gate legs working well. Overall, a good example of an antique oak gateleg table. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
