Description

This is a truly exceptional early 20th century English sofa with unusual scalloped design. The size is impressive at 2.6m in length and pair that with the design and you really do get a very special piece. This is such a bold sofa that you can really make a statement in a room with it. It also has unusual Anglo-Indian style feet which just add the design perfectly. Soft low seat making it great for more relaxed seating but we can firm this up if you prefer. The upholstery is recent. Not by us but done well and is very clean so ideal to go into a home as is. We can however upholster this in your choice of fabric if you prefer.
