Description

Demetre Chiparus Girl with Mirror Femme au Miroir. A superb Art Deco patinated and cold painted bronze study of a beautiful young woman admiring herself in a hand mirror. Excellent and finished detail and a superb cast. A fine example of the exceptional skill and workmanship of the master sculptor Demetre Chiparus. The figure stands on a tapered white marble base and is signed in the marble. A similar figure is shown in A. Shayo, 'Chiparus Master of Art Deco', Abbeville Press, 1999, p.102 where a bronze and ivory version is shown. A beautiful piece. French c 1925. Excellent original condition Demetre Chiparus (1886-1947) Born in Romania, Dimitri Chiparus emigrated to Paris, where he studied under Antonin Mercier and Jean Boucher. He began to exhibit small sculptures, his very first showing at the Salon of the Societe des Artistes Francais in 1914 leading to an Honourable Mention. Louis Comfort Tiffany was also awarded an Honourable Mention that same year. Chiparus was an extremely prolific artist, producing a wide variety of mainly small-scale figures. These were executed generally either all in bronze or in bronze and ivory. As with Preiss, Lorenzl and Colinet the ot...
