Description

An attractive and well presented 19th century antique oak tilt top table. The antique oak tilt top table has a circular shaped three plank top, which is raised on a turned pedestal with a tripod base. The top can be tilted upright for storage purposes. A rather pleasing example, full of authentic charm. Item Ref; M-4504 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 72.5cm / Width - 74cm / Depth - 74cm / Upright - 113cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, stains and shrinkage to the top (pictured). There are further marks and scratches to the base, also honest repairs to the legs (pictured). The table top has slight movement when fixed down, however the antique oak tilt top table remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a good example of its kind. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
