Description

Handsome Victorian bookcase beautifully made from solid mahogany. This bookcase splits into two sections for easy transportation. The top section has a flared cornice which sits above two glazed doors with bun handles. It opens to a fully adjustable shelved interior which will accommodate any size of book of treasure you wish to display. The base has two panelled doors with matching bun handles and opens to a shelved cupboard with two small drawers with brass inset handles. A superb bookcase in excellent condition with only marks etc in line with age and use.
