Description

Here we have a very rare Burr Elm tilt top table c1850. As you can see the table has great colour and patina. There is a single piece of wonderful burr Elm to the top. The Elm stem is perfectly turned and carved with exquisite ball decoration. There are well shaped legs in a tri-form configuration again also in solid Elm. You will see from the underneath that the top has always been with the base from the impression left by the stem. A super rare period table in excellent retail condition ready for your home. The dimensions are approx 50 cm wide 50 cm deep 70 cm high.
