Description

Victorian inlaid centre table This Victorian inlaid centre table was made circa 1870. The top with rounded corners, the wonderful, selected burr walnut and then decorative inlay roundels, amboyna banding, and box wood stringing. The table stands on pairs of well-carved turned supports that are joined by a pole stretcher. The Greek key carving is a signature design by a company Smith Bros. Bristol. You sometimes see the items with the stamp Bros. This Victorian walnut table can be used in many places around your home. As a centre table, in a bay, behind a sofa or other areas you need for display. 91cms wide 36ins 47cms deep 16 1/2ins 74cms high 29ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
