Description

A very good late Victorian period pedestal desk by Jas Shoolbred of London. Very well constructed in solid walnut with attractive walnut veneers. The top fitted with a sumptuous green leather writing surface. With a series of 9 drawers, all fitted with their original brass handles and lockable with the key supplied. Finished to the rear so could be free-standing within a room if desired. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops and now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home or office. Splits into 3 sections for ease of installation.

Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying te...
