Description

These charming Pair Of French Fruitwood Hall Benches combine rustic form with a degree of sophistication. The well-shaped lower cross frames, finishing in a generous foot, are joined with turned rails to add strength. The arms supports are finished off with a swan head like decoration to the tops, with the arm rests combining turned, as well as octagonal shaping. With the fruitwood being a delightful warm hue, combining with a degree of patination, these stools would work in so many areas of the home.
