Description

Pair of Victorian floral marquetry walnut pier cabinets This pair of Victorian floral marquetry walnut pier cabinets were made circa 1870. The cabinets with arched glass doors with one that opens to the left and the other that opens to the right, making them a correct pair. The doors open for you to gain access to the velvet lined interior fitted a shelf. Having cast gilt brass mounts applied to the front sides and plinth. Lovely panels of floral marquetry to the doors and further inlaid panels on the frieze and stiles, with birds holding a sprig of flowers and foliage. Pairs of cabinets are highly desirable, this pair can be used in so many places around your home. Have you some alcoves you need filling or a hallway that you need to make special, a drawing room that can be lifted with these amazing cabinets, or an interior designer that needs a pair of cabinets to fit a difficult area. Imagine how good these will look in your home and the pleasure of ownership they will bring.
