Description

A Superb Victorian Burr walnut triple wardrobe circa 1860 . The wardrobe has fantastic figuring and colour of the finest quality . The wonderful rounded corner cornice has very fine carved detailing that is only seen on the best Antique furniture .The wardrobe has recently been relined in a traditional cotton blue striped fabric . The two end hanging sections are fitted with a brass hanging rail and hooks each with single mahogany fronted ash lined drawer . The centre section has three slide out mahogany fronted ash lined trays ,above this there is a brass hanging rail and hooks proving a very good amount of hanging storage . Each end door has a working lock and key . The central retains its original plate mirror and also has a working lock and key . It also has later magnetic door catches . The wardrobe breaks down into three main sections plus the cornice and plinth base . overall a stunning wardrobe of the finest quality that very seldom come onto the open market We can arrange delivery through out the UK please enquire for our competitive price .
