Description

A spectacular original Art Deco wardrobe in birds eye maple and walnut. This was made in England, it dates from the 1920-30's. This is one of the most unusual and stylish wardrobes of the period we have ever come across. It is beautifully designed and is of superb quality. There is lots of storage space inside, the left section has a hanging rail, coat hooks and shoe rack in the bottom. The right section has drawers, shelves and even a secret lockable compartment in the upper section. This is predominantly birds eye maple, with walnut trim around the edges and solid walnut handles. We have had this stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is superb throughout. We also have the matching pair of bedside cabinets and large chest of drawers that came with this, seen listed under our other items for sale.
