Description

An old worn rug with lovely colours and pattern. Perfect for someone looking for that country house look. Finely woven and in the typical colours/style of the area. I would say 19thC in age and its condition reflects this with holes and old repairs/stitched edges. The rug is clean and of a size right for a hall or landing. The wear and holes are not as apparent when the piece is laid on the ground. The photographs are a good representation of the colour and condition. The rug is thin not thick, clean and ready for use. 196 cm long max by 129 cm max wide.
