Description

An Edwardian silver mounted scent or perfume bottle with clear hallmarks for Birmingham 1915 and makers mark for Jones & Crompton, who were registered from 1901-1932. The hinged lid has an elegant design of engine turned stripes with dots, and a central vacant cartouche. The lid interior is gilt sprayed, a mark of luxury, and the stopper is present and fits well. The crystal base is elegantly cut with horizontal diamond shapes, interspersed with crosses. A very pretty and elegant piece, making a nice change from the well know hobnail cut base.
