

SA960912

Important Early 18th Century Walnut Kneehole Desk

Price

GBP 12,500

| USD $17,043 | EUR 14,586

Item Reference: SA960912

Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Dimensions

Height = 77 cm (30.3")

Width = 90 cm (35.4")

Depth = 53 cm (20.9")

Description

A rare and impressive George I Walnut Kneehole Desk of outstanding untouched colour and patination. In good original condition retaining the original handles apart from those on the top drawer. The unique design details of this piece make it special. Having quarter veneered top with double checkered banding, cross banding and cross grained ogee mould that differs from the norm with the addition of a fine bead above. Drawer fronts with checkered banding and cock beading to the edge and an extraordinarily unusual arched inlaid patten to the central door. Having cross grain fluted canted corners and original shaped bracket feet sitting on small turned buns that have been on the piece for around 150 years. The original drawer lining are in good clean condition and made in Oak. Circa 1715 A real collectors piece of untouched English Walnut Furniture of the early 18th Century.

Seller Details

Holmes Antiques

West Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07729 347 159

International Tel: +44 7729 347 159