Description

Outstanding Edwardian rosewood side cabinet in excellent condition with original bevelled glass. A stunning item with deep rich colouring and amazing graining that can be separated into 2 pieces for easy transportation. The top section features a brass gallery and brass pillars which support the small cupboard. The base has a mahogany lined drawer and glazed cupboard retaining original brass handles and key. The bevelled mirrors to the back of both sections will create the impression of a more spacious, brighter room. This is a fantastic item that will enhance any room.
