Description

Georgian oak dresser base This Georgian oak dresser base was made circa 1790. It has 3 turned legs at the front that are that end on pad feet, above these are the 2 long drawers with a shaped frieze under. Antique oak dressers are fantastic, as they can fit into so many places around your home and add character that is not easy to find. This example is rare for the turned legs with the pad feet, especially as it has the central leg support that gives it the extra interest and style. Imagine how good this will look in your home, the pleasure ownership will give you, your family and friends are bound to love it! 186cms long 73ins 52cms deep 20 1/2ins 75cms high 29 1/2ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
