Description

Victorian satinwood inlaid display cabinet Here we are pleased to offer you this Victorian satinwood inlaid display cabinet that was made circa 1880, taking its influence from Sheraton's book of designs. This elegant cabinet is constructed in fine Satinwood with fine marquetry inlays to the glazed doors, cornice, drawer fronts, and the top surface. The sides and legs with double strung line inlay. The double door display cabinet to the top, the doors with shaped glazing bars. These open to provide access to the shelves, unusually the back is glazed and not lined in material. The cabinets stand has square tapering legs, it is of a serpentine shape, fitted with a wider central drawer and a smaller drawer to each side. All the drawers are fitted with the original cast brass swing handles. Imagine this stunning Satinwood cabinet in your home and the pleasure it will give you as well as your pride as you show it off to your family and friends. 117cms wide 46ins 201cms high 79ins 51cms deep 20ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
