Description

English, Circa 1930. A fine quality walnut chest of drawers by Waring & Gillow. Waring & Gillow a noted firm of English furniture makers, was formed by the merging of the famous Gillow of Lancaster and Waring of Liverpool in 1897. Gillow's of Lancaster were highly successful furniture manufacturers and retailers throughout the 18th and 19th centuries, but running into financial difficulties in last years of the 19th century, they formed a loose arrangement with Waring which was formalised in 1903 with the formation of Waring and Gillow. This chest is offered in excellent condition, having a lovely light colour using book matched walnut veneers to create an eye catching pattern on the drawer fronts. Caddy top, above 3 graduating drawers of good quality construction as you would expect. With square bakelite handles and swept out bracket feet. W 95.5cm/37.5" D 48cm/19" H 82cm/32.25"
