

SA962306

Large Antique 19th Century Masonic Engraved Glass Rummer c1820

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA962306*Date of manufacture: 1800

Dimensions

Height = 15 cm (5.9")

Description

Technical Description A superb early 19th cen Masonic Engraved glass rummer c1820. It has a large bucket bowl engraved with various masonic symbols including the Jachin and Boaz columns, set square and compass, moon, stars, sun and all seeing eye. Also engraved with the initials ILJ within a floral wreath. Capstan stem above a conical foot. Date & Origin England, c1820. Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration Dimensions Height: 15.2cm Rim diameter: 9.8cm, Foot diameter: 8.7cm Historical Interest The 'Radical Rising' or 'Radical War' of 1820, also known as the Scottish Insurrection of 1820, was a week of strikes and unrest in Scotland that culminated in the trial of a number of 'radicals' for the crime of treason...

Internal Ref: SG2023010811

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

