Description

Charming Georgian walnut lowboy in that unmistakable Chippendale style. Its top is covered in stunning figured walnut veneers with cross banding and inlays in a heron bone design. The three drawers below covered in burr walnut veneers also have cross banding and the same designed inlays. Each drawer have attractive shaped brass fittings and sits over a beautiful shaped apron. The elegant cabriole legs are carved at the knee and terminate on claw and ball feet. In excellent condition with historical marks etc as is to be expected however these only add to the character and charm of this very functional antique item.
