Description

A George III period, mahogany tilt-top tripod table, Circa 1780. A original and high quality table, constructed in excellent early well figured solid mahogany. A circular top, from a single piece of attractively figured heavy mahogany, hinged tilt mechanism. Supported by a well proportioned engine turned stem, raised on a tripod of cabriole legs. A rare find! An excellent almost totally unmolested original example, in very good and original condition. Excellent colour, polish and patina throughout. Ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 73 cm (24.75") tall, and 64.5 cm (25.5") in diameter. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Excellent colour, patina, and polish. Only very small minor marks and blemishes. Almost totally original. No signs of repair or damage, other than a small partial aged split in the block which has been glued. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
