Description

An excellent antique George III period linen press in mahogany. This was made in England, it dates from around 1790-1810. The quality is excellent, this is extremely well made and is a great size with lots of storage space. The upper panelled doors contain two deep tray slide shelves, the lower drawers retain the original brass handles. This sits on bracket feet and has a removable cornice that is inlaid with satin wood. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is very good for its age with various small marks and indentations commensurate for age. This has acquired a beautiful patina over the last 200 years or so. The cornice comes off and the upper section also lifts off the base, so this comes in three pieces for ease of transport. Width – 49 inches , 124 cm Depth – 23 inches , 58 cm Height – 79 inches , 200 cm
