Description

A fine quality early 19th century mahogany adjustable table reading-stand. The rectangular desk lined with its original dark brown gilded leather and fitted with a pair of swivelling side supports and mounted on a finely turned column with a circular base. The book rest has a spiralled metal mount on the left corner of unexplained purpose but appears to be original fitted to it. Desk is 12" (30.5cm) x 9" (23cm) deep; the whole stand is 12" (30.5cm) high rising to 14 ½ (37cm) Diameter of base is 7" (17.5cm) John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times - we hold an Open Weekend in November.
