Description

A stunning carved tilt top mahogany table. We bring to you this superb example of an Early Victorian solid Mahogany tilt top table believed to be made around C1880. This almost flawless table has been cherished and is in fantastic original condition with the original french polished finish and lightly faded colour with lots of patina and charm. The stunning moulded edge table top stands on its substantial beautifully turned base going to 4 proportionate beautifully shaped carved scroll cabriole legs which finishes to its original solid brass castors on brown porcelain wheels. Unusually for a tilt top table and as a sign of the condition and quality of this table, there is no movement or play in the mechanism as the table is being normally used, the solid mahogany top is flat with no bowing or twisting and the snap latch smoothly operates. This table has a small overall form factor yet is versatile from having an oval shaped top managing to comfortably accommodate 4 chairs and be used as a formal dining room or breakfast table. Already not taking up too much room because of this shape, the top tilts upright for storage with its original quality brass latch and the top i...
