Description

Edwardian oak pedestal desk This Edwardian oak Maple & co pedestal desk was made circa 1900 in the workshops of Maple & Co, the well-respected cabinetmakers, who had prestige showrooms in London, Paris, and Buenos Aires. The pedestal desk is of a superb size that can suit a good-sized office, as it provides a wonderful workstation, and it still has its original leather inset writing surface. The desk was made in 3 parts, the top that is fitted 3 drawers and the 2 pedestals that have 3 graduated drawers in each. All the drawers are lined in fine mahogany and fitted their original brass handles. These Edwardian oak Maple & co pedestal desks are substantial in their size and also presence in a room, they give a feel of importance and obvious quality. Imagine the pleasure you will have owning this superb desk. You are bound to get many compliments about your choice. 153cms wide 60ins 82cms deep 32ins 79cms high 31ins 61cms floor to underside of knee hole 64cms between plinths in the knee hole 25ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
