Description

A rare and highly decorative novelty silver plated grape salver and matching grape scissors. The salver is uniquely made in the form of a large leaf from a grapevine. It has wonderful cast detailing which is further enhanced with fine engraving and hand chasing. A delightful feature is on the underside where it has three feet. The first is formed as part of the stem and the other two are beautifully detailed snails. The salver comes with the original matching grape scissors also cast and hand engraved with matching vine leaves and bunches of grapes. Both pieces are in excellent original condition and are very pleasing to the eye. Circa 1900 Salver : height 4cm x width 22cm x depth 22cm Grape scissors height 1cm x width 16cm x depth 6cm
