Description

Mid C18th German serpentine outline walnut baroque period commode. Shapely serpentine fronted 4-drawer walnut and fruitwood commode. Cross-banded and inlaid throughout, the top with a central reserve and a large 8-point star 'compass' motif in contrasting rosewood and satinwood or sycamore sections. Fitted with stylised dolphin patinated bronze handles, possibly of a later date, and decorative patinated bronze escutcheon plates. The top edge and base with sectional cross-grain mouldings, the whole raised on original tapering front feet, the rear on square section feet. The pine-lined drawers fitted with original steel sprung locks, retaining 2 original keys. The sides with broad crossbanding, the verso fitted with the original backboard. Wonderful rich colour and patina to the figured and burr veneers. In superb original condition, has been sympathetically cleaned and waxed in our workshops. H 37" W 48" D 26" Germany, probably Frankfurt c.1750
