Description

Superb William IV Rosewood Folding Games or Card Table. This is an exceptionally fine quality piece with a beautiful patina, it takes up little space and would make a superb console table, the table unfolds to make a 3ft square games table. The base leg and apron of the table are carved and decorated, the table has 4 large claw feet and wonderful carving around the centre leg. The top apron has a carved scroll decoration, this swivels and opens out revealing a compartment with plenty of room inside to store the cards and games. The table is fully restored and has a new green base playing area. The table is 28" high and 36" x 18". TJK144
