Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A very elegant George III mahogany pembroke table. Having a beautiful solid mahogany butterfly shaped top. c1780. Having two drop-leaves to the top, over a cock-beaded single full length drawer, having the original wooden cutlery compartments within. The drawer with the original swan-neck handle and brass escutcheon. The legs on this very pretty table are really quite unusual and beautifully crafted, being chamfered on all sides and elegantly tapered, standing on fluted block shaped tapering feet with brass castors, united by an X stretcher. Good rich patina to the wood, with expected character and signs of age and use. A historic repair to the centre of the left drop-leaf, shown in the pictures, very hard to detect as it is very well restored. Some knocks and bumps to the back, with evidence of very historical woodworm also to the back. A high quality table with character age and history. Very solid sturdy and strong. Could seat four diners comfortably. The dimensions are. Height-73cm. Width-56.3cm. With leaves-110cm. Depth-96cm. VIEWING.
